

1. What is the mission and culture of the school?
2. How does the school perform academically?
3. What are the school's philosophies and approaches to teaching and learning?
4. How does the school support learning for students who require extension or extra support?
5. How does the school track a student's academic progress?
6. How does the school address a child's social and emotional needs?
7. How is a child's physical development catered for in the school?
8. What co-curricular programs does the school offer?
9. What are the points of difference this school offers?
10. How does the school ensure the ongoing professional development of staff?
11. How does the school engage with parents?
12. How does the school prepare students for success beyond high school?